Celebrating Culture, Heritage & Belonging

WHO IS AMAL?

Amal is a puppet representing a nine year old refugee girl from Syria who began her journey from Turkey in July this year and will make her final destination Manchester in November visiting over 70 cities, towns and villages, people are invited to welcome her on her journey. Amal's 8,000 mile walk comes to Sheffield on October 29th 2021.

CREATIVE WRITING AND ARTS WORKSHOP

To celebrate all cultures, heritage and belonging. Come and write message of welcome, or a poem in your own language on banners to be hung in the sky on Tudor Square. Celebrate unity, home, inclusivity, journeys, new beginnings and hope. We will also decorate the back of the banners with themes taken from celebration, traditional patterns from around the world, symbols of peace and unity.
